IMAGEN 1

This picture shows a girl who is browsing in a bookshop.

She seems to be young, maybe she is in her thirties.

She is quite tall and she has got a long wavy hair.

She is wearing a red raincoat and a long sleeve jumper so I guess it's winter.

She is holding a book about guitars so maybe she likes music. It looks as if she is interested in the book she's looking at.

The bookshop is not crowded, I can only see the girl in the picture.

It is cramped and not very bright because there aren't any windows.

In the background, the place looks untidy because I can spot shelves full of books that are not organised.

I'm not sure, but maybe it is a second hand shop since some books look quite old.

In my opinion, spending time in a bookshop is fun because you can find books about anything you want to learn about. I love visiting second-hand stores because you can buy surprising books for very cheap price.

The picture shows a man walking along the beach.

He seems to be in his 30s but I can tell because I can't see his face.

He isn't very tall and he has got short dark hair.

He is wearing a grey scarf, a black short sleeve T-shirt and jeans, so I guess it's spring time. He is carrying a bag so maybe he has been shopping.

It looks as if he is not stress since I believe he is walking slowly.

The beach looks peaceful and quiet, there are some waves and I can also see some rocks and mountains in the background of the image.

In my opinion, talking a walk along the shore is a great way to relax and connect with nature.
